PRESS RELEASE

Dana Point Congratulates Ursula Luna-Reynosa on New Role as Huntington Beach Community Development Director

Dana Point, CA (June 6, 2018) The City of Dana Point has announced that Ursula Luna-Reynosa has joined the City of Huntington Beach as its Community Development Director. Ms. Luna-Reynosa served five years as Community Development Director for the City of Dana Point.

“While we will miss Ursula and her outstanding professionalism and commitment to serving the Dana Point community, we’re excited as she embarks on this next stage of her career,” said Dana Point City Manager Mark Denny. “All of us wish Ursula the best in her new role.”

Ms. Luna-Reynosa has accumulated 15 years of managerial experience in community and economic development. Over the course of her career to date, she has also served as the economic development director for the cities of Vallejo and Tracy.

She holds a bachelor’s degree in Economics from the University of California Riverside, and is a member of the American Planning Association, Urban Land Institute, International Council of Shopping Centers and the California Economic Development Association.

More information can be found on the City’s website. Please visit <http://www.danapoint.org>.
