

Call to Artists: Arts and Culture Commission of Dana Point

The City of Dana Point Arts and Culture Commission, dedicated to art, beautification and culture, is pleased to announce a call to artists for a juried art exhibition to be displayed in the Dana Point City Council foyer from March 1, 2013 to May 1, 2013.

The fine art exhibit is open to media including drawing, painting, and photography. The imagery must reference Dana Point. One artwork will be selected to be reproduced on the cover of the summer edition of the City of Dana Point Community News. Open to artists of all ages, residing in Southern California. Selected artwork will be displayed in the foyer of the City Council Chambers that is only unlocked for limited intervals during public meetings.

Deadline for a limit of 3 online photo submissions of artworks is February 15, 2013. Please include name, title, medium, and contact information.
